The petitioner has also taken possession of the same. He produced Xerox copies of the allotment order and possession receipt. The same are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. It is pointed out that the petition is for getting said allotment. Therefore, the grievance of the petitioner, according to the learned counsel for the respondent, stands redressed and the petition has become infructuous. We have perused the petition and copy of the allotment order. We find substance in the statement made by the learned counsel for the respondent. Therefore, petition is disposed of as infructuous.
